MASSIE JURY DELIBERATES "HONOR CASE"

Opening Six-Hour Session Fails To Produce Verdict in Honolulu Murder

TRIAL CLOSE DRAMATIC

Both Darrow and Prosecutor Are Heard in Eloquent Arguments

By The Associated Press

HONOLULU April 28 A jury of 12 men of different racial origins after nearly six hours of deliberation had not reached a verdict today in the trial of Lieut Thomas H Massie and three others charged with slaying Joseph Kahahawai for vengeance

Judge Charles S Davis ordered the jurors to retire for the night at 10 p m (3 30 a m Marion time) and to resume consideration of the evidence at 8 a m (2 30 p m Marion time) today They received the case late yesterday

The jury is composed of five Americans three Chinese one German one Dane one Portuguese and one Hawaiian

Shortly before the jury retired the 12 men were observed through a window of the jury room pacing up and down

Massie an officer of the United States navy his mother in law Mrs Granville Fortescue society matron and Albert O Jones and E J Lord navy enlisted men are charged with slaying a native who allegedly had confessed participation in a criminal attack on Mrs Thalia Massie wife of the officer

The court ruled the jury could find the defendants with the exception of Massie guilty of second degree murder or guilty of manslaughter or not guilty For Massie Judge Davis said the jury might make any one of these findings plus a possible verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity

Separate Verdicts Ordered

A separate verdict for each of the defendants was ordered Judge Davis also ruled that evidence regarding the assault could be considered only as it related to Massie's mental state

The jurist warned the jury no man may take the law into his own hands and the alleged fact that the deceased ravaged the wife of one of the defendants can not be considered

To justify a second degree murder verdict Judge Davis ruled the jury would have to conclude the prosecution had proved the four persons killed Kahahawai and that they had intended to kill him

Judge Davis said if the jury decided Massie killed Kahahawai and was insane at the moment and had not planned the killing then none of the defendants could be convicted unless the prosecution had proved a conspiracy to do things the reasonable consequences of which would be Kahahawai's death

The penalty for second degree murder the charge upon which the four were brought to trial is 20 years to life imprisonment Man

HOUSE PASSES NAVY APPROPRIATION BILL

Allows $326,000,000 for Operations After Denying 10 Per Cent Cut.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 28 The house today passed the $325 000 000 naval appropriation bill after defeating a motion to send it back to committee for a 10 per cent cut

The vote on the motion for a further cut was 198 to 20 Representative Schafer Republican of Wisconsin offered it without comment but the majority of the Democrats and many Republicans joined to defeat his proposal

A few moments earlier the house had defeated 122 to 111 an amendment by Representative Darrow Republican of Pennsylvania to appropriate $1 000 000 for initial construction on a $7 000 000 naval hospital at Philadelphia

Speaker Garner said the house would meet again tonight to expedite action on the economy measure

Revolting for the second time this session against the guidance of the party headmen, a majority of the representatives at a turbulent session last night slashed out of the economy bill the provision for cutting salaries and wages of government employes exempted all pay up to the $2,500 level, and were started on further inroads when a hurried adjournment was taken

As the bill stands now its calculated total of $200 000 000 has been cut $55 000 000 by the big exemption voted in the pay cut clause

Harding Field

Several inquiries have come to this department recently concerning the location of Harding field, the new diamond which will be used for city softball games this season. The diamond will be constructed at the end of the new Harding football stadium which has been under construction since last fall. Both the football gridiron and baseball field are units in what it is hoped will eventually be a complete athletic layout for use by Harding High athletic teams and also independent city teams.

Construction work on the new diamond was scheduled to commence today. The heavy graders and rollers which have been working on the football layout will be shifted for the present to the site of the baseball diamond. Ira Keller, chairman of the grounds committee of the city softball commission, announced last night the new field is expected to be completed within the next few days.

Will Improve Others

Besides the construction of the new diamond, the fields already in use by the city leagues will be given a thorough going over before the start of the season in about two weeks. Keller has obtained the promise of Service Director E. O. Uncapher that the city will cooperate in putting the playing fields in the best possible shape. The outfields of both Garfield and Lincoln will be rolled before the start of the season and the infields also will be put in condition.

"Doc" Stith Hurt

Softball fans who attended the Central Ohio softball tournament at Lincoln park late last summer, remember the pitching feats of one "Doc" Stith of the Linden Gophers, tournament champs. Stith amazed the local fans with his blinding speed on the mound and not a few have expressed the hope of seeing him hurl here several times this summer.

Stith may do some flinging here before the summer is over but not until late in the season. When the explosion partially wrecked the new state office building at Columbus, recently, Stith, an electrician, was one of the victims of the blast. He is now recuperating in a Columbus hospital and is not expected to ascend the knoll until late in the summer. However, it is almost certain Stith will again appear here as a member of the Linden Gophers when that team defends its title in the second annual Central Ohio tourney this season.

Local interests have formed a company to develop airplane communication in and around Jamaica.

Wes Ferrell Records Fourth Victory as Cleveland Downs St. Louis, 7-1.

By The Associated Press

For a team studded with injury and illness, the Chicago Cubs have managed this far to get around [illegible] well in the National league.

They were a half game ahead of the Boston Braves today and they have made their upward surge with three of their greatest stars, Hazen Cuyler, Elwood English and Burleigh Grimes out of the lineup.

Even with Grimes, world series hero, forced to start in the opening weeks, the Cubs have received the steadiest pitching in the league. Eight of twelve pitchers have gone the route.

Lance Richbourg, obtained from Boston has been filling Cuyler's outfield spot in fine style, and Bill Jurges has done so well at shortstop English will have a hard time jarring him loose.

Each knocked across two runs yesterday as the Hornsbymen rang up their fifth straight win at Pittsburgh's expense, 8 to 4. Pat Malone had a bad first inning, in which the Pirates banged him for four hits and as many runs, but he settled down to allow them only one blow the last eight frames. He and Richbourg each hit a home run.

The one other National league tilt saw the Cincinnati Reds, battling to keep away from their old basement berth, slug out a 6 to 4 win over the Cardinals. George Grantham hit four singles and Babe Herman came through with two singles and a double to lead the assault on Sylvester Johnson.

The American league leadership also changed hands, the Yankees squeezing ahead by the process of remaining idle while the Detroit Tigers dropped a 4 to 3 decision to Chicago.

Wes Ferrell limited St. Louis to five hits in registering his fourth straight victory, 7 to 1. Earl Averill led the Cleveland assault on Stewart with a home run and a double.

The cold wave that has curtailed the major league program this week held on at New York and Philadelphia. Walter Johnson, between snow flurries at New York, predicted his Washington Senators would win the flag.

HELEN WILLS MOODY HEADS FOR EUROPE

California Star Impresses Observers with Improved Form Before Departure.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 28—Armed with 25 tennis racquets Mrs. Helen Wills Moody was headed today for another conquest of Europe's tennis world.

She sailed at midnight after convincing everyone who saw her in action that she has reached new heights of court skill.

She is hitting the ball harder than ever before, her rivals will be sorry to learn, and has developed a chop stroke to round out her game.

Only Manuel Alonso, the veteran international star, was able to subdue Helen in her matches here, but she carried him to two deuce sets. She roundly defeated Harry Brume, and in her final appearance yesterday, teamed with Sarah Palfrey of Boston to defeat Brunie and Mrs. George Wightman of Brooklyn, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3, 6-4.

TWO EPWORTH NINES TO RENEW RIVALRY

The Epworth Bishops and Epworth No. 1 teams will renew their softball rivalry Friday night at the Shovel athletic field. Each season the teams play for the championship of the John Clark class, counting the two regular season games and one pre-season tilt in the standings. Epworth No. 1 won last year, two games to one although the Bishops finished higher in the league standings. The game is called for 6 p. m.

OHIO STATE STARS TO SEEK NEW MARKS AT RELAYS SATURDAY

Buckeye Tracksters Already Hold Major Share of Records at Penn Meet.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—With dual track meets against Ohio Wesleyan and Pittsburgh won by overwhelming margins, track and field athletes of the Ohio State university will leave tonight for the thirty-eighth Pennsylvania relays to lay siege to the Penn carnival records.

Ohio State individuals and relay quartets now hold more records in the standard events there than are credited to any other school in the college and university division.

There is a good opportunity that Friday's and Saturday's event will see more records added to the Buckeye credit.

In the 100-yard dash, Don Bennett of Columbus who equalled Olympic record time against Pittsburgh last Saturday, will endeavor to beat the Penn mark of 9.6 seconds set by George Simpson also of Ohio State, in 1929 and 1930.

Jack Keller of Columbus, who established a new carnival mark of 14.7 in the high hurdles a year ago should have little trouble in beating his own time if weather conditions are favorable. Keller ran the distance in 14.6 a week ago and is in top form.

The Ohio State sprint quartet which will be selected from Bennett, Jesse Fazekas of Lorain, Lloyd Wise of Columbus, Morris Teitelbaum of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Bill Carroll of Columbus, is among the favorites in the 440 and 880-yard relays.

With Keller, Captain John Black of Lima; Mortimer Hochman of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Russell Ralson of Pomeroy, running the 440 yard shuttle hurdle relay against strong eastern entries, relay officials are expecting a new world mark. Yale set the Penn record

Upset Now and Then Chief Hope of Indus Nine

Note: This is the sixteenth of a series of stories concerning the prospects of the various city softball teams.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor, The Star

Unless the long awaited prosperity corner is reached within a short time, the Excavator-Alloy softball team is almost certain to encounter rough going in the Industrial league competition which gets under way here on May 12. Neither the General Excavator company or the Alloy Steel company are working a very heavy force at present and finding nine high class ball players from the staff is a difficult job. An increase in the working force would enhance the team's chances considerably.

However, regardless of whether the team is likely to finish up in first or last place of the standings the Excavator-Alloy nine will be on deck and ready to go when the umpire calls "Play Ball" on the opening day. The club is not voicing any expectations of crashing through to a pennant but is hopeful of staging an upset often enough to make the season interesting.

The Excavator-Alloy lineup for the season is uncertain. Alva Redmond is piloting the club and has given no indication of who will compose the starting lineup.

The Excavators have a good young pitcher in Henry Gilmore. Gilmore made a good showing last season with the team, despite the fact the club has a poor year as far as games won and lost are concerned. He will probably be called on to do the greatest share of the tossing this year, no matter how tough the sledding. Franz will probably do the catching.

There are something like 20 candidates trying for posts with the team. Some of those most likely to find positions are Clifford Leffler, George Jonsson, Donald McGraw and Ralph Emmons.

GRIMES TO PITCH FOR BRUINS SOON

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, April 25.—Burleigh Grimes, the pitching hero of the 1931 world series as a member of the St Louis Cardinals, probably will be ready to make his bow as a Cub within two weeks.

Grimes has suffered from a variety of ailments, including influenza and infected teeth, but has recovered sufficiently to get in uniform.

SINCLAIR MINSTRELS... on 35 NBC Stations every Monday Evening

You pay nothing extra for this $18,000,000 gasoline improvement—the new SINCLAIR REGULAR GASOLINE stepped up 70% in anti-knock

(superior to some premium gasolines)

We've cracked the depression in the gasoline business—cracked it wide open by offering the public a new Sinclair Regular Gasoline stepped up 70% in anti-knock—a gasoline which is actually superior in anti-knock to some premium gasolines selling at several cents more per gallon. It cost us $18,000,000 in new refinery equipment to do it—but how the public likes it! Sales on the new Sinclair Regular jumped 30% the first month in the first city where this new ace of high-test motor fuels was announced!

Try this bargain in gasolines for 30 days. Let the results convince you.

NOTE: For best results use either SINCLAIR OPALINE MOTOR OIL or SINCLAIR PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL. Both have been de-waxed and also freed from petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero.

IGHT SAG TS MARKET

Generally Lower Day Upward

By The Associated Press

—The stock ... slowly ... the early ... into a ... afternoon ... however ... was a soft spot ... Auburn was a soft spot, breaking 4 points to 35. U S Steel common eased by a fraction, but losses of a point or more appeared in such shares as American Can, American Telephone, North American, Allied Chemical, Dupont, Union Carbide, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, New York Central, National Biscuit, Coca Cola, Corn Products, Eastman, Case and others. The Bethlehem Steel issues were already in advance of the directors meeting after the close.

For a long range viewpoint the market appeared to be merely continuing the sidewise movement of the past fortnight, and brokers were inclined to hope for little more than a quiet, highly discriminating trading market for the near by future at least. Wall street has been hopeful that the month of May might bring something in the way of a belated spring pickup in the volume of general business which might tend further to stabilize prices.

GRAIN PRICES AGAIN SLUMP

Material Setbacks Follow Reports of Moisture in Crop Belt

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO April 28 — With moisture, general where needed, in domestic crop belt, ... wheat ... were ... setbacks early today ... Liverpool wheat quotations were lower ... rains in Canada were reported favorable and Argentine wheat supplies ample to furnish 4,000,000 bushels a week ... lower when afterward ... further ... started ... and ... to ... low prices.

General selling carried wheat quickly down 2 cents a bushel and then tumbled all deliveries of corn to fresh bottom prices outdoing the record for many years back. A contributing factor was reports of a considerable increase of wheat acreage in France with prospects that the French crop would exceed requirements. Much of the selling of wheat futures came from houses with eastern connections and ran the market into a stop loss area.

Advices from southern areas of domestic winter crop territory said recent rains had been beneficial to wheat that was not beyond recovery and that additional moisture tonight appeared probable. Auspicious reports from spring wheat districts were also noted. It was believed that the entire spring crop now had sufficient moisture to carry the plant forward for some time. Estimates of Argentine wheat export this week put the total at 5,327,000 bushels, about 1,000,000 more than either the week previous or a year ago. Corn and oats tailed with wheat.

Provisions went lower influenced by downturns in hog values and of grain.

THERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT about the flavor of CHESTERFIELDS — something about the blending and cross-blending of fine tobaccos—that gets to you, every time.

THERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT about their mildness, too It is the mildness that comes from the ripest, sweetest, mellowest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos There is no bitterness in them . . . no harshness.

THERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT about the taste It is that good, pleasing taste that comes from the right kind of tobacco, cured in the right way—cured for two years or more It means that to make CHESTERFIELD Cigarettes, millions of dollars are tied up in tobacco leaf—but it's worth it

THERE'S SOMETHING DIFFERENT about CHESTERFIELDS—THEY'RE MILD AND YET THEY SATISFY!

Outstanding among the exhibits [illegible] of clay figures by George Fairbanks Jr., 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks of south Greenwood street, and a group of oil paintings and a bust of George Washington, by John Imbody, 12, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Imbody of Concord street.

[illegible] talent is shown in both [illegible] which are the subject of [illegible] interest at the show. An oil painting showing George Washington mounted on his horse by [illegible] Francis Bodnar, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bodner of Mary street and an oil painting of a girl by Jane Rooks, [illegible] daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rooks of south Vine street, also show unusual talent.

PROSPECT GIRL HAS MOST PERFECT BACK

Lorene Ransome Declared Winner in Contest Sponsored by Chiropractors.

Selected as having the most perfect back out of a group of seven contestants, Miss Lorene Ransome of Prospect, will represent local chiropractors in a statewide "perfect back" contest in Cleveland Saturday in connection with the twentieth annual convention of the Ohio State Chiropractic society. Other awards won by Miss Ransome were a hat, dress and a permanent wave.

The selection was made at Hotel Harding last night.

For having the second most perfect back Miss Ruth Owens of 695 Mt. Vernon avenue was awarded second honors and received silk hose and shoes while third honors went to Miss Ethel Fay Locker of 465 Windsor street who was awarded with an umbrella and a silk blouse.

A judging committee composed of Mayor W. C. Phillians, Adam Bauer and G. W. Bacon and Dr. R. Canstein of Upper Sandusky and Dr. J. B. Evans of Bellefontaine representing the chiropractors, selected the winners.

Should Miss Ramsone succeed in carrying off first honors at the contest in Cleveland Saturday, she will represent the state society in a nationwide contest to be held in Detroit in August. The contest in Cleveland Saturday will be held at the Hotel Statler.

The local contest was sponsored by Dr. G. G. Nuetzel, Dr. J. F. Neidhart and Dr. A. J. Wensinger.

Upon his return to the naval station it is expected he will be transferred to the naval musicians school at San Diego, Calif., for a course in band work.

NEW STAMP ISSUE PLACED ON SALE

Stamp collectors added another issue to their collections when 20,000 Arbor day stamps were placed on sale yesterday at the Marion postoffice. The anniversary stamp commemorates the one-hundredth anniversary of the birth of J. Sterling Morton, founder of the Arbor day movement and the sixtieth anniversary of the establishment of the day set aside for the planting of trees.

DECISION IN LUKENS CASE DUE SHORTLY

State Supreme Court Hears Damage Suit Against County.

The state supreme court yesterday in Columbus heard attorneys' arguments in the $40,000 damage suit of Charles E. Lukens against the Marion county commissioners. A decision, affecting the Lukens case and two other identical cases for similar amounts, will not be given for several days.

The Lukens case and its two companion cases grew out of the death two years ago of four school teachers when their automobile plunged into a creek from an unprotected bridge abutment 12 miles east of here on Harding highway.

Plaintiffs in the other two damage suits to be affected by the supreme court's decision are D. B Lehman and J. A. Munyan of Columbus, fathers of two of the accident victims.

John H. Clark presented the case to the state court for Lukens. The commissioners were represented by County Prosecutor R. M. Wilhelm.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, April 29

A DAY in which there may be great play upon the sentiments or emotions is foreseen among the mutual aspects. It is well to be on guard against this. Also there is likely to be subtlety or treachery to guard against. A fairly favorable Saturn compensates by furthering labor and employment and also assisting thriving developments in land property and tenancies. Sign papers and make changes with care.

Those whose birthday it is may have a rather contradictory year, suffering through their emotions through treachery, but prospering in labor, employment and in landed possessions. It is advisable to work hard and sidestep the sentimental complications. A child born on this day should be diligent, practical and studious to a fair degree, but may be inclined to let its emotional reactions dominate.

Notable Nativity: Duke of Wellington.

FLASHES OF LIFE

By The Associated Press

MIAMI—The directors of the Seniors class play at Booker T. Washington High school wanted more life in a shooting scene and came nearly getting the opposite. The villain in the piece imbued with new enthusiasm, picked up a pistol and pulled the trigger. Two members of the cast dropped—shot. Their condition is not critical.

SYDNEY, Australia — The judge in Mrs. Aimee Belle [illegible]'s opinion is an old meanie. She declined to tell him the source of her wealth and was ordered to prison for contempt. She says she'll stay there the rest of her life rather than apologize to that horrid judge.

ST. LOUIS—Dr. McFall of the bureau of the census, after studying the figures, makes the startling statement that drug stores in St. Louis actually sell drugs. Sale of drugs and the filling of prescriptions generally, he added, constitute 40 per cent of the retail drug business.

SALT LAKE CITY—Carrots for cash! The city commission has agreed to take the vegetables in payment of rent for a tract of land. Animals in the zoo will eat them.

MUSKOGEE—Whoever was responsible for the carload of underwear sent for distribution among the five civilized tribes of Indians here probably meant well but was a poor judge of climate. All the underwear was woolen, which at this time of year is ridiculous.

This statement was handed to the state emergency board yesterday by Finance Director Howard L Bevis who said anticipated revenue was falling $1 250 000 short of estimates despite seven and a half per cent budget cuts ordered by Governor White last January

The director's recommendations approved informally by the board were that emergency accounts must not exceed $350 000 the $916 349 set aside for additions and betterments be cut to $500 000 and that Governor White reduce expenses another $750 000 through additional economies

Webb and Coxey To Carry Farmer-Labor Standard

By The Associated Press
OMAHA Nebr April 28 – For the second straight campaign Frank Elbridge Webb of San Francisco will carry the presidential banner of the Farmer Labor party His running mate this year will be Mayor Jacob S Coxey of Massillon, O Webb headed the party ticket in 1928

Webb was given the nomination last night by the party's convention after a fight to have himself accredited as the delegate from California Chairman Roy Harrop of Council Bluffs Ia had previously ruled that Webb had not presented credentials accrediting him as the California delegate and denying him the right to cast that state's 25 votes

Thirty minutes before the night session adjourned however Webb succeeded in having himself accredited and was thus empowered to cast California's 25 votes which presented the margin of his victory

Others proposed for the nomination were Mayor Coxey Thomas Mooney labor leader now serving a prison sentence in California on a bombing charge and Harrop

The convention adopted a national platform blaming the gold standard for present economic conditions and calling for the placing of the banking and currency system in the hands of the federal, state and local governments instead of under private ownership

Welcome, Grotto

It is hardly necessary to say that Marion is delighted to have members of the Grotto from various sections of Ohio as its guests today But formal words of greeting and welcome are always in order and Marion wants its welcome to be more than a formality It extends the glad hand and asks each visitor to take full advantage of the city's hospitality

The Grotto as understood by the uninitiated is an organization that strives to chase away care and worry and does a mighty good job of it That being the case Marion is doubly glad to have its representatives as visitors There can't be too many organizations of that kind

Marion residents will be out in large numbers tonight to see the brilliant and colorful parade the Grotto has arranged This community and probably every other normal community in the whole wide land of ours enjoys parades and similar spectacles They never fail to draw crowds that fill the streets to capacity and everybody in the throng benefits from the entertainment Marching columns bright uniforms and the music of the bands provide a tonic that brightens the mind and eye and revives dry bones and sluggish blood

Yes men of the Grotto we're glad you're here

And we're also glad to know that you will be back with us in still larger numbers for the state convention next fall

The German Barometer

American life and money sacrificed to make the world safe for democracy are reminders even more unpleasant than usual considered in the light of Germany's most recent voting The Germans having tried to govern themselves are giving up to the promises of a man who is under the spell of Napoleonic illusions of power—Adolf Hitler would be dictator

He has gained in every election since his National Socialist party became prominent in the fall of 1930 Described then as a cross between the Italian Fascist party and the American Ku Klux Klan held up to Germany's neighbors since then as a threat to world safety and discouraged by middle opinion in Germany itself the party has increased in strength nevertheless until when votes were counted Sunday it was the strongest party of the nation

As its leader as its symbol Adolf Hitler is strong Still his strength consists largely of the opposition's weakness If Germany did not doubt parliamentary democracy it would not be attracted to Hitler's promises of a better governed nation under his dictatorship It is not men who are on trial It is government Germany has found nothing but sorrow in American ideas of government by the people It sees nothing ahead but more sorrow It is not strange that a nation which attained its greatest strength under monarchial rule would tend to compromise on dictatorship in its uncertainty

Control of Prussia means virtual control of Germany National Socialist spokesmen have demanded from their new position of strength that the Prussian diet resign immediately which is the most overt sign of Hitler's strength and representative democracy's weakness in Germany that the world has seen yet Critical events in modern German history are being fashioned with bewildering rapidity as the German people's faith in the government American fought to make safe is shaken and disappears Who can say it is not an occasion to display storm signals for popular government everywhere It is facing a crucial test in other nations too

Meeting an Emergency

[illegible] the [illegible] regrettable developments [illegible] shortage of operating funds for public [illegible] that exists generally throughout the [illegible] that which affects the [illegible] [illegible] locality

[illegible] toward deterioration [illegible] endangers the future of the [illegible] which must depend upon the young [illegible] being prepared for the duties of citizenship

Marion has been more fortunate than [illegible] in the maintenance of its public [illegible] standards in the face of financial handicaps The city board of education has just found it necessary to curtail the present school year by two weeks but that is actually trivial compared to the drastic action required in many other localities throughout Ohio and other states

Yet the situation here is serious enough, through no fault of the present school officials, or for that matter of officials in the past Decreased tax valuations of property and other circumstances resulting from the present subnormal state of affairs have created a situation that was inescapable Those in charge of the schools seem to have met the emergency in a capable manner

It is unfortunate that in order to cope with the situation reduction of the pay of teachers and other school employes was necessary In no instances were any of them overpaid But at the beginning of the school year it was evident that if the city's educational system was to be maintained to a point anywhere near the customary nine month period the salary cut would have to be made All in the school corps accepted the new arrangement in the best of spirit and went through the year working as diligently and as capably as ever That is not surprising for devotion to duty has always been a predominant characteristic of those engaged in the profession of public education

In announcing and explaining the two weeks curtailment of the school year Superintendent Bowman speaking for himself and the board said that the board's program is to prevent a deficit in the schools operating funds That is a sound business policy and fortunately one that the school management sought to follow long before the present emergency was in sight

The care and good judgment shown by school officials here in the last year provide reason for belief that they will solve their problems satisfactorily and be headed toward the normal schedule of operations when classes reconvene next fall

Dr Elmer H Stoffelbach says that people mistake hilarity for happiness It's an easy guess that somebody has flown the good doctor for a visit to a night club

Huey Long from Louisiana

There's a difference between Huey Long in Louisiana and Huey Long from Louisiana the difference being a picture of a man and the man in person Huey Long in the senate Huey Long speaking before Cleveland's City club Huey Long shaking hands with northerners is far from the comic ogre he was pictured as being in his Louisiana environment

On the contrary he is a good speaker a well dressed figure of a man and a homely philosopher with both feet on reality and a goodly store of native wit within reach of his tongue Instead of being the man elevated to a senatorship by his political machine in Louisiana he has become the man who took Louisiana senatorship out of a state of anonymity and gave congress another positive personality

It really isn't important except that Senator Long had quite a following of interested observers before he added his title He was famous for this adventure that example of nonconformity The public eye has been on him from the start and it is important to note at this juncture in his career that the expression is changing from one of pained surprise and reprimand to one of amusement and broad interest

If Democrats control the senate in 1933 there will be Democratic sons of the wild jackass —uncontrollables—who will make as much trouble for the party as the so called progressives on the Republican side Prominent among them will be Huey Long from Louisiana prominent legislator for better or worse A [illegible] commentator puts it Beside Huey Long Brookhart of the Republicans is as gentle as a dove

Familiarity With the Billion

There are people living who can remember when a million dollars was a lot of money even in the operation of government But in [illegible] [illegible] a million dwindle to commonplace proportions in comparison with [illegible] of this later day

Nine ciphers on all figures from Washington are accepted with [illegible] A figure with six ciphers may command passing attention if it happens to be in the right company Three ciphers automatically [illegible] the figure from courteous attention

Yet there are many who [illegible] with the fact that a billion dollars is a lot of money even among government [illegible] [illegible] for the [illegible] they [illegible] [illegible] the problem [illegible] ciphers [illegible] other It's a little [illegible] the [illegible] So they try to [illegible]

If a million were [illegible] high a billion would be the height of a [illegible] building

Editorial Opinion

ARE THE BEAUTIFUL DUMB?

Beautiful but dumb has been a popular catchword unsupported by any sort of scientific evidence that would prove an essential connection between the two qualities Persons who think for themselves have had every reason to question it observing—to mention only one phenomenon of everyday experience—how the presumably dumb beauties come out of alimony and breach of promise proceedings leaving behind them good business men sadly vanquished

All in all it has looked as though the link of beauty with stupidity might be as little justified as that ancient advice to little girls that they be good and let who will be clever The presumption of something antagonistic between virtue and intelligence is no credit to the wisdom of the poet who said it

But now at length what do we see In the solemn and conservative Journal of the American Medical association appears an article setting forth the conclusions of a long series of scientific experiments which are thought to prove that carbohydrates are the only nutritional elements that feed the brain Muscles may be supplied with energy by the oxidation of both fat and dextrose but for the highly specialized tissue of the brain nothing but carbohydrates will serve

Putting this into everyday language one [illegible] that a stevedore can do his stuff if he is stoked with suet but the brain will not work unless it has sugar or starch The [illegible] are vague about the actual applications of their discovery to practical problems of living but they encourage at least a suspicion that ladies who deny themselves bread and potatoes in the desire to be beautiful may thereby curtail the activity of their brains It is a horribly distressing thought but there it is and we can do nothing about it except perhaps to beg the scientists to [illegible] look and find us a theory more consistent with our notions of what a just world ought to be —Decatur Herald

BEAUTIFYING THE TRACK

[illegible] was when the railroads seemed to put a blight on all they touched Down by the track was a phrase conjuring visions of [illegible] both dirty and dangerous of soot [illegible] dwellings and appalling warehouses The term railroad flat came to describe any [illegible] tenement house almost regardless of its proximity to a railroad

[illegible] things seem always to evolve to [illegible] Electrification of railroads has made [illegible] obnoxious to the eye New York's [illegible]—Park avenue—is built almost entirely [illegible] railroad tracks Mount Vernon [illegible] New York also is pondering a project [illegible] the right of way of its principal [illegible] New Haven attractive It purposes [illegible] put a roof over the tracks and to [illegible] into a splendid civic plaza surrounded by handsome buildings offering a [illegible] of fine architecture and pretty [illegible]

This particular kind of improvement is still [illegible] in this section on Mount Vernon [illegible] are depressed Electrification [illegible] extensive in New England either [illegible] tendency in all cities which have a [illegible] in themselves is to make the rail [illegible] comely while making them less [illegible] Mount Vernon is happily situated its project is immediately possible of application But every city thinking far ahead may [illegible] opportunity to add attractiveness to [illegible] many other advantages which are brought [illegible] the railroad —Worcester Telegram

Care of Children's Health

BY ROYAL S COPELAND M D

For ages May day has been set aside for youth The May pole the Queen of the May and this festival of childhood have come down to us from pagan times

Moderns have seized upon the day as an appropriate date to reach the children for betterment of their health and the movement has made its appeal to those in high places

President Hoover issued a proclamation designating May 1st as Child Health day and urging all organizations interested in child welfare to unite upon that day in the observance of such exercises as will awaken the people of the nation to the fundamental necessity of unremitting effort for the protection and development of the health of the nation's children

What a nation is depends on the physical and mental health of its citizens There is no hope of adult health unless its foundations are laid in early life In the absence of accident or epidemics long life may be expected if in babyhood and early youth attention is given to the physical welfare

It is indeed true that as the twig is bent the tree is inclined While it is possible to overcome the ill health of youth and to outlive its devastating effects this is not the rule The child is father to the man and unless the child's development is carefully watched there is almost certain to be weakness of body or mind in adult life

The child is the corner [illegible] republic Let us see to it that the child is guarded against those defects that undermine health By so doing we are building for the future and will insure the continuing [illegible] of our country We fail in patriotism if we neglect the child

On Child Health day [illegible] thought to the little ones On this day let every parent give the child a careful [illegible] If any doubt arises as to condition of [illegible] teeth eyes throat or general development let the family doctor be consulted

Let us call on the [illegible] bodies to make ample appropriations for health activities Make sure that water and milk supplies control of food products and all other public agencies for health are under proper supervision and [illegible] Playgrounds decent school buildings and clean streets are essential to the public welfare

In short let us make reality of Child Health day Let it be the beginning of new things in each community

Washington Apr 28—When Ed Crump [illegible] from Memphis, Tennessee [illegible] in the house the other day [illegible] for special public [illegible] it was a matter of news. [illegible] was of such great [illegible] was that Crump had [illegible] the first time he had ever done

He has been a member of the house only [illegible] December but Speaker Garner [illegible] perhaps known on The Hill no better than is Ed Crump He can probably call more [illegible] colleagues by their first name than any man in congress

He is proud that he never forgets a person once he has met him There's always a note book in his pocket In it he jots down the name of those he meets during the day then memorizes the list when he goes back to his office

On the floor he continually is circulating among the members He'll sit and chat with one for a few moments then move on He can tell you days before a pending piece of legislation is voted on what chances it has of being passed or defeated

He is tall slender and sandy haired and dislikes to make speeches He estimates that during his entire time in politics he has made fewer than a half dozen

It's behind the scenes that he does his work His political campaigns have a flavor of their own

His political organization has been accused of almost everything by its enemies but Crump personally never has been challenged

He neither smokes nor drinks anything stronger than milk The latter is his favorite beverage Several times during the day he [illegible] down to the house restaurant and buys a glass

Cocktail, Dead in Europe

BY RALPH HEINZEN

Paris April 28—UP—The American cocktail is dead all over Europe long live high [illegible] and beers

This is the summary of opinion of European bartenders and barmaids who have been predicting for years that European tongues were too sensitive for cocktails and that the habit would disappear as quickly as it came

In Great Britain beer is triumphant again In Germany there is a noticeable decrease in consumption of both cocktails and beer and a great increase in the amount of milk consumed In France the passing of the cocktail craze has seen a revival of champagne drinking

Depression may have something to do with the change from cocktails to beer milk and champagne Cocktails in the ordinary bars here cost five francs—roughly twenty one cents—and were rarely worth the price Few French bartenders ever learned the secret of how much of each ingredient to mix so that in various bars from the Etoile to Montmartre the same cocktail might take on a dozen different hues and tastes

In the luxurious bars cocktails cost forty cents a sum far too high Beer costs but fifteen cents and milk eight cents The effect of a glass of milk here might not be the same as a cocktail but drinking is only an excuse for most French to sit on a sidewalk cafe terrace and watch the crowds go by Five milks cost as much as one cocktail but they allowed the drinker an excuse to sit five times as long

The return to champagne would correspond to a return to mid Victorianism in drinking It was late in the century when champagne drinking reached its peak In those days when all the noblemen of Europe upon becoming of age made the tour of European capitals known as the Tour of the Grand Dukes drinking champagne from actresses slippers in all the best places of Paris Vienna Berlin and London

Champagne never has been so cheap in Europe as now The lessened American bootleg demand may be responsible or depression again It is possible to buy first quality champagne now for fifty six cents a bottle bars sell it for sixteen cents a glass in some places

Since cocktails are made from imported whiskys gins vermouths and an imported Maraschino cherry generally sits on the bottom of the glass the government is glad to encourage the drinking of champagne

Hayes and the University

BY J H GALBRAITH

With the continued growth of Ohio State university statues of those who have been instrumental in setting the institution in [illegible] way of success may be expected to appear about the campus and one of the first should be that of ex-President Rutherford B Hayes It was he who as governor of the state appointed the original board of trustees consisting of nineteen members—one from each congressional district

He returned to the executive office after [illegible] years of retirement just as the institution was struggling through its first year of actual college work and after his retirement as president deemed it a privilege to serve on [illegible] board and to keep in touch with an institution that had been very near to his heart from the beginning

He had vision to see at a time when territory to the east and north of the [illegible] campus could have been bought at [illegible] at all prohibitive that the campus [illegible] be increased by purchasing acreage [illegible] fortunately he was not sustained in [illegible] and since his death the university [illegible] chased great stretches of land [illegible] river

Many Uses Found for Lemon in Milady's Quest for Beauty

BY JOSEPHINE HUDDLESTON

I'VE been checking up on new data on lemons and their value in beauty culture which came to me not long ago and have found additional and practical beauty uses for the lemon which I want to tell you about today.

One suggestion which interests me greatly is the use of lemon for removing odors from the hands, especially recommended after handling fish or onions. I'm sure all housewives will welcome this bit of news for Spring without green onions isn't spring! And hands that waft the after-odor of onions do not suggest the daintiness of person which every woman desires.

After handling either of these odorous foods, run the open side of a cut lemon over the hands, dig the tips of the fingers down into the lemon so that the area under the nails is deoderized, too, and then rinse your hands. All odor will have vanished, as well as any stains on the skin.

Another hand beauty suggestion is the addition of one teaspoonful of lemon juice to the warm water used for soaking the hands before manicuring. Outside of aiding in the cleansing and sterilizing process, the cuticle is softened quickly so that most of the dead skin around the nails wipes off instead of having to be scraped loose with the instrument usually used for this purpose.

Pure lemon juice, also corrects rough cuticle and those of you who have long practised cutting the skin around the nails will find that applications twice daily will refine the rough and coarsened cuticle until cutting may be dispensed with after a time.

The use of lemon juice to kill odors on the hands, caused me to experiment with its possibilites as a perspiration deodorant. This experimentation has led me to believe that lemon juice not only deodorizes but tends to check the excessive flow of perspiration. Can't promise, too much yet on the latter for my tests have not been continued long enough. But, it helps to check excessive perspiration and keeps the body dainty.

The deodorizing value of the lemon probably is one of the reasons why the juice of two or three lemons is suggested in the bath water.

VERDICT AWAITED IN MASSIE TRIAL

Jury Resumes Deliberation Today After Night's Rest.

slaughter calls for a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison.

Insanity Plea Presented

An intense plea in support of the insanity defense of Lieutenant Massie and in behalf of the unwritten law, made by Clarence Darrow, and a fiery demand by Public Prosecutor John C. Kelley for conviction of the quartet, preceded the instructions.

Darrow, who is in his 75th year, came out of retirement to defend the four, argued the grueling events preceding the abduction and killing were not the work of the accused and that therefore they could not be blamed. He asked the jurors to apply the golden rule.

Bringing tears to the eyes of his listeners, Darrow reviewed in detail how Mrs. Massie was bruised and beaten in the attack; how the ordeal had preyed on Massie's mind and how ugly rumors about Mrs. Massie's character sprang up after jury had disagreed as to the guilt of five men accused by her.

Darrow attacked the witness stand appearance of Dr. Joseph Catton, prosecution alienist who contradicted defense testimony that Massie was insane at the moment of the tragedy.

Then he defended Massie's story of the killing.

Memory Fails Him

At one point Darrow forgot the name of one of the defendants. He turned to Kelley and asked what it was.

"Don't you know?" Kelley asked.

"Yes, but it has popped my mind," said the aged Chicago criminal lawyer.

"It's Lord," Kelley supplied.

"Lord—that's right," said Darrow turning back to the jury.

In concluding, Darrow proclaimed his kindliness toward all races.

With brevity and fire Kelley whirled into his argument.

"You have been presented with a defense of sympathy, not of insanity," he said. "If you are going to decide this case on passion, then tell me and I'll be silent."

Kelley asserted Massie had taken his wife, against her desires to a dance the night of the attack, and that the naval officer was responsible for it all.

"They sacrificed that girl," Kelley shouted, pointing to Mrs. Massie, "for his ego and made a Roman holiday for the crowd that disgraced this court with applause last week."

Kelley hinted disbelief in Massie's admission that he held the pistol which killed Kahahawai.

He asserted all Hawaii was on trial in the present case.

girls urged Eddie ont Jenny Georgie s pitched low She gave tle push toward the Eddie and herself laid the rear door of the car Harry pel are staring already ook an obedient step in wake and then halted as a faint whisper in her omething that Georgie ed ast night some thing she had been embarrassing in poor ta e—she could only half remember it but whatever it was brought her to a halt on the baking pavement I d rather s with you she said and clambered into the back of the car with Georgie

Georgie flushed began to say something but fell silent She was fidgeting with her glove the glove that covered the bright new ring Jenny s mind was still running on the rather dreary ceremony during which Eddie had placed the ring there The second witness had been a mechanic brought by Eddie and sworn to secrecy Jenny had liked his frank cheerful fa and had secretly agreed with him when after wishing Georgie happine s he added to the company n general— Though don t seem like a wedding at all

If that traffic doesn move in two seconds and let us get away I shall climb out again and walk announce Georgie She sounded nervous and her eyes were slipping sidelong to the idlers on the side walk most of whom had watched the little party come out of the building In the doorway was a youth Jenny recognized as one of the clerks He was evidently on his way to lunch He stood idly t ring his eyes on Eddie

Look out said Georgie sharply The traffic block was breaking and Eddie had let in his clutch None too gently the car urched forward so suddenly that in spite of Georgie s warning Jenny was jerked nearly out of her seat Part of Eddie s opinion of automobiles in a congested street floated back to her

H s tired said Georgie apologetically A long flight and a wedding all in about 14 hours is no joke I wish he hadn t borrowed this car he isn t used to her

Jenny had been coming to the same conclusion Eddie had stalled his engine started her up again braked sharply to avoid a boy and was now wrestling with the gears Jenny noticed with secret amusement that the clerk on foot and still staring had drawn abreast of them on the pavement At last Challenging all the known laws of time and space Eddie hurled the car around a corner into a wider street. He yelled a war cry and stepped on the gas It crossed Jenny s mind that Eddie had fortified himself against his fatigue in Eddie s approved fashion

Sure this is the way? shrieked Georgie Eddie only drove faster

Where are we supposed to be going? gasped Jenny clutching her hat

Out of town for a late lunch then back to the apartment for an even later tea He s going fast

The long street was flashing by Jenny gasped again tore off her hat and clung to the car side instead

He s going too fast repeated Georgie and through the rush of their speed Jenny heard alarm and anger in her voice Eddie you fool ease up

Jenny felt quite sure that there was an important crossing at the bottom of this street She had keen long sight and she had very distantly seen a buss cross the end of the vista Now surely Eddie should be braking down for the corner? But Eddie was not braking—apparently he couldn t find or couldn t manage the brake—

Georgie s scream and the splinter of glass and the thunder of the second bus as they went buckling and splintering into it—all came together in Jenny s ears They made a great blare that was followed by a greater silence After all the whole world seemed full of people running towards her

That s done it absolutely said Georgie s voice coming apparently from nowhere There won t be an evening paper that won t tell the Old Man all about us Good bye to my job

Very slowly Jenny moved and as it were woke up She was still clutching the side of the car still sitting on the back seat in the left hand corner by a miracle quite unhurt. Now that the impact was over she felt almost—ordinary The extraordinary things were happening but not to her

For instance Georgie was dragging herself off the floor a red mark over one eye and her hat torn from her head And Eddie—she took a full minute to understand that all those people on the further side of the road must be kneeling and standing round Eddie Eddie she supposed had gone clean through the wind shield Not so very clean The few remaining jags of glass were smeared with red

The sight galvanized Jenny She clambered over Georgie and out of what had been the rear of the car and dived at the group on the pavement She pushed and pulled them aside—and there was Eddie Flat on his back a man bending over him a great deal of blood

"Heart of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON

Grantland Brings Madge the Record of a Talk Lee Chow Overheard

CURIOUSLY enough Edith s laugh and mocking comment had but one effect upon me that of steeling me to composed indifference as to what Dicky thought of Hugh Grantland s impassioned adieu to me which I was certain he had overheard

You are not de trop at all" I told him with a light little laugh But I ll give you the veranda if you like I was just going back anyway to my duties of hostess You ll find it delightfully cool here after the dancing

I had risen as I spoke and walked toward him With my last words I tried to slip airily past him but Dicky caught my arm and swung me around facing him I had not looked at him and for the fraction of a second I was in a panic of uncertainty as to just what his mood was Then I heard him laugh and I knew that although he might be angry he was not going to give Edith the satisfaction of knowing that he was annoyed

Sauce for the Goose

So you recommend the moonlight do you?" he asked Well you ought to know judging from the line we heard old Hughie handing out as we came up just now Come on Edie I m not as artistic a worker as the military but I ll try my best to strike a properly romantic note

Oke my me old dear Edith said with another high pitched laugh and I slipped away feeling unaccountably dreary Lillian s favorite maxim that what was sauce for the goose was sauce for the gander seemed suddenly to have been applied with what Dicky calls the reverse English

He did not keep Edith out on the veranda more than a minute or two however and when they came back I was mean enough to rejoice over the fact that she was distinctly displeased over something which I guessed might be Dicky s failure to remain longer on the veranda

But for the rest of the evening down to the very last strains of the last dance one question repeated itself insistently in my brain Had Dicky kissed Edith in that moonlight noon where Hugh had begged me in vain for the favor?

Not until the next day did I get an answer to that question late in the afternoon when all the members of our house party had departed and Katie and Mrs Ticer were putting the house in order again I was in the living room arranging some fresh flowers when Katie came in from the hall

Grantland Brings News

Dot Major Grantland he out on side veranda she said He say he vant see you von minute right avay queek

I cast an apprehensive glance at the front veranda where Harry and Dicky were peacefully smoking I had had no opportunity to see Dicky alone since the breaking up of the party in the early morning hours Hugh had entertained all the men at breakfast and we had seen none of them until our house guests were ready to depart for their homes But I was very sure that Dicky had not forgotten what he had overheard upon the veranda the night before

If Hugh had forgotten his promise If he should get out of hand again? I had no alternative however save to see him but my steps lagged perceptibly as I made my way to the little side veranda

Hugh was standing as I came to the door and though I asked him to be seated he refused with a formality strangely at variance with the look in his eyes

I can not stay he said I should not have come at all except that I have a message from Lee Chow which he insisted must be delivered to you and which he is not able to bring him elf

Oh I said with quick concern I hope coming to the party did not make him ill again"

Something Overheard

No no he assured me hastily he is not ill only much fatigued as might be expected from one in his condition Indeed he wanted to come and tell you this himself but I would not permit him to do so

Inadvertently Lee Chow overheard a conversation of which he thinks you should know It was between Mr Owen and Mr Brix ten and though I feel like an eavesdropper I really am at I have no excuse whatever in repeating the conversation to you"

You need have no qualms whatever in repeating anything those two men say to each other I t d him I am afraid of them both particularly of Mr Owen They are dangerous men I believe and I think they are trying to gain possession of Marion s fortune by any means that they find opportunity to use"

Then, Hugh said gravely see what you make of this

He drew from his pocket a sheet of typewritten paper and handed it to me

Lee Chow he explained was so struck with the possible importance of the conversation that he took it down in a sort of individual shorthand that he employs and I typed it from his dictation Read it and see what you think of it"

The single sheet of paper which I took from his hand looked like a page from the manuscript of a play

Mr Brixton and Mr Owen talking in bedroom I began not aware that a concealed listener had made words in next room

Mr Brixton—Well what luck?

Mr Owen—No luck at all (unprintable oath here L C) That (unprintable word L C) of a Graham woman has queered the game in some way (Here he consigned Mrs Graham to perdition)

I looked up at Hugh in astonishment What did this mean?
